Join us collaborating and co-creating at IACDE:

Roland Schuler, president IACDE

“Please enjoy with us this great event in one of the most fascinating cities of the world! Let's have a deep dive into processes and procedures of Technical Product Development.”

Alan Abramowicz, Vice president Executives IACDE

“The content has been creatively and meticulously chosen to reflect the main issues of “collaboration 2.0” that are relevant to pattern makers as well as to industrial suppliers.”

Ulrich Scherbel, Treasurer IACDE

“One of the exciting parts of the Congress this time will be the discussions and interactions in the “Marketplace” area!” We will collect valuable insights and ideas from the convention sessions and pass these on in real industrial life.”

Silvia Schoening

“This is a Draft program so times may vary slightly. Register today, fast and easy, with the help of the attached doodle list!”
